ITINERARY

Day 1 Lisbon, Portugal

Departure 7:00 PM

Discover the world's last colonial empire, turned bustling cosmopolitan city. Lisbon has dozens of Moorish castles, pastel buildings, and white sand beaches to explore. This Atlantic-coast city perfectly encapsulates Mediterranean charm with its wine, food, and architecture.

Day 2 Oporto (Leixoes), Portugal

8:00 AM – 7:00 PM

This picturesque city is popular for its colorful tile-decorated buildings, its many hills and the iconic bridges by the Douro River. For an authentic Portuguese experience, go to the Ribeira neighborhood and cross the Dom Luis I bridge to watch the magical sunset among the locals.

Day 3 AT SEADay 4 Santander, Spain*8:00 AM - 7:00 PM

Take a tip from the Spanish and head to Santander. They flock to this Cantabrian city to lounge on the long golden beaches, admire its Belle Époque mansions and gracious parks, and promenade along the waterfront Paseo de Pereda. This is a festival city, the 10-day Semana Grande in July being one of the best, and home of the arts center Centro Botín, designed by Renzo Piano. Then, of course, there is the food; Santander's bars serve some of the region's best pinchos, tiny tapas of tasty morsels served on a crunchy slices of baguette – anchovy fillets preserved in oil are among the local favorites.

Day 5 ST Jean De Luz, France7:00 AM - 6:00 PM | ANCHOR

With its huge sweep of sandy beach and charming painted houses overlooking the sheltered waters of a natural bay, Saint-Jean-de-Luz appears at first glance to be a sleepy port – but delve deeper and you'll discover there's more to it. This French Basque town just a short hop from Spain was once the domain of plucky privateers and weathered whale hunters, earning it the nickname `nest of vipers`, while its elegant 17th-century buildings are testament to the wealth of the ship-owners who made their fortunes here. Today, it's a lively fishing port with many interesting landmarks, including the church where Louis XIV married Maria Theresa in 1660, thereby uniting France and Spain.

Day 6 Bordeaux, FranceArrival 10:15 AM | OVERNIGHT

This UNESCO-designated city known as Port of the Moon due the natural shape of its harbor is celebrated for its glorious chateaux, its mouth-watering cuisine and its incomparable wines – Bordeaux is surrounded by the world's most famous vineyards including Medoc, St-Emilion, Pomerol, Graves and Sauternes. One time the richest community and largest port in France, Bordeaux today is second only to Paris as the country's most densely populated city.

Day 7 Bordeaux, FranceOVERNIGHT*Day 8 Bordeaux, France*Departure 10:30 AM*Day 9 AT SEA*Day 10 Portland, United Kingdom*7:00 AM – 7:00 PM

The south coast of Britain keeps a long sandy leash on this isle in the English Channel. That strip of sand is Chesil Beach, part of the Jurassic Coast, an impressive array of rocks, landforms and fossils listed by UNESCO as the only place in the world to reveal 185 million years of geological history in one place. Just a few square miles in size, this almost-island is a quiet cluster of communities best known for its headland Portland Bill – with no less than three lighthouses – and the creamy white stone quarried here, used in the construction of some of Britain's greatest buildings, including the Tower of London.
