Day 1 - New York, New York*Apr 29 | Depart 5:30 PM

The 'City that Never Sleeps' beckons — renowned museums and sites galore by day; the glittering sophistication of clubs, theaters and restaurants by night. Explore Chinatown, Greenwich Village, the United Nations, Central Park's Museum Mile and Wall Street's towering steel and glass monuments to commerce, then hop into a cab for an afternoon of world-class shopping along Park and Fifth Avenues.

Day 2 - Cruising the Atlantic Ocean*Apr 30Cruising the Atlantic OceanDay 3 - Halifax, Nova Scotia*May 01 | Arrive 08:00 AM | Depart 5:00 PM

Welcoming travelers to an innovative and historic cityscape, Nova Scotia's Halifax offers excellent dining and friendly maritime smiles. Tour Halifax Citadel or take a stroll along the historic waterfront or through the delightful Public Gardens, the oldest Victorian gardens in Canada. Lobster and seafood are local specialties and always tempting to the taste-buds. The Micmac Indians, called the area 'Chebuctook', meaning Great Long Harbor and the city's ideal location on one of the largest natural harbors in the world made it a strategic asset for convoys in both world wars. Scenic Dartmouth lies on the opposite shore and can be visited by crossing on the oldest saltwater ferry in Canada.

Day 4 - Cruising the Atlantic Ocean*May 02Cruising the Atlantic OceanDay 5 - St. John's, Newfoundland*May 03 | Arrive 08:00 AM | Depart 5:00 PM

One of the oldest English-founded cities in North America, St. John's is the perfect blend of small-town charm and big-city comforts. Wander down narrow streets lined with colorful row houses. Visit Quidi Vidi, a charming village-within-a-city that embodies the spirit of an old fishing port. The Rooms culture center, home to a museum, art gallery and archives, stands next to the twin clock towers of the impressive Basilica of St. John the Baptist.

Day 6 - Cruising the Atlantic Ocean*May 04Cruising the Atlantic OceanDay 7 - Cruising the Atlantic Ocean*May 05Cruising the Atlantic OceanDay 8 - Cruising the Atlantic Ocean*May 06Cruising the Atlantic Ocean*

Day 9 - Ponta Delgada (Azores), Portugal*May 07 | Arrive 08:00 AM | Depart 5:00 PM

Savor the unparalleled natural wonders of this splendid volcanic island located at a crossroads in the Atlantic. See its stunning landscape, thermal pools, natural steam vents, volcanic lakes, subtropical flora, plantations and picturesque towns filled with perfectly preserved 17th and 18th century buildings.

Day 10 - Cruising the Atlantic Ocean*May 08,Cruising the Atlantic OceanDay 11 - Funchal (Madeira), Portugal*May 09 | Arrive 07:00 AM | Depart 4:00 PM

Madeira is described as the “Island of Eternal Spring.” Entirely volcanic in origin, the soil combines with the mild climate to produce an abundance of green as well as multicolored vegetation. The rugged landscape, scenic fishing villages, magnificent vistas and ideal climate bring the island fame as a year-round resort. Before leaving this panoramic Atlantic isle, be sure to sample a glass of the famous Madeira wine.

Day 12 - Santa Cruz de Tenerife, Canary Islands*May 10 | Arrive 10:00 AM | Depart 6:00 PM

Tenerife's privileged setting allows you to enjoy beautiful beaches such as las Teresitas; admire the enchanting Orchid Gardens, founded in 1774 as a historic English garden, or visit the Teide National Park, the symbol of the island.

Day 13 - Arrecife (Lanzarote), Canary Islands*May 11 | Arrive 07:00 AM | Depart 4:00 PM

Discover exotic Arrecife with its modern, yet relaxed attitude rising pristine and white against a barren volcanic landscape along a turquoise bay. Visit Timanfaya National Park and marvel at the twisted lava formations and caves. Explore El Charco de San Gines, a salt-water lagoon filled with colorful fishing boats, surrounded by the white and blue homes of the fishermen. Visit the International Museum of Modern Art housed in the Castle of San Jose, and the Archaeological Museum in the Castle San Gabriel. Meander along Calle Leon y Castilla for exceptional souvenirs and shopping. Look for hand embroidered linens, African carvings, the local Guanches pottery, duty-free perfume and liquor. Enjoy tapas and a fine glass of wine at one of the seaside caf  s in a land of sunshine and siestas.

Day 14 - Agadir, Morocco*May 12 | Arrive 07:00 AM | Depart 4:00 PM

Located along North Africa's Atlantic coastline in the shadow of the Atlas Mountains, Agadir was rebuilt after the earthquake of 1961 demolished most of the historic Portuguese, Arab and French colonial structures. Modern Agadir is a posh, upscale resort offering delicious sun-drenched days and activities from tennis, horseback riding and golf to stretching out on a golden sand beach. Visitors looking for a memento can bargain in the colorful souks. Dining options range from traditional Moroccan dishes to French and International cuisine. Excursions can take you to ageless Berber villages, or you can indulge the senses in the scenic Souss Valley and the High Atlas.

Day 15 - Casablanca, Morocco*May 13 | Arrive 10:00 AM | Depart 6:00 PM

Casablanca is Morocco's largest city and industrial center. Its renaissance came with the French protectorate under its first resident general, Lyautey. It was largely his ideas on public works and the layout of the new city which gave Casablanca its wide boulevards, public parks and fountains, and imposing Moresque civic buildings.

Day 16 - Cruising the Atlantic Ocean*May 14Cruising the Atlantic OceanDay 17 - Lisbon, Portugal*May 15 | Depart 7:00 AM

Legend states that Ulysses founded Lisbon, calling it Olisipo. Others claim that the name is Phoenician, but all agree it's one of Europe's most fascinating destinations. On All Saints' Day in 1755 a devastating earthquake destroyed much of the city. The Baixa (Lower City) was rebuilt on neo-classical lines that still form the heart of the city. The elegant City of Explorers overlooks the River Tagus, and offers a number of distinctive neighborhoods to discover. Tour the Alfama, where the winding streets still retain much of their Moorish atmosphere. Stroll to Bairro Alto and hear the melodious sounds of Portugal's Fado music. Nearby excursions transport you to the lavish 18th-century palace of Queluz and Sintra's Royal Palace..
